1 2 Maccabees 12:43-46

A reading from the second Book of Maccabees

Judas, the ruler of Israel,
took up a collection among all his soldiers,
amounting to two thousand silver drachmas,
which he sent to Jerusalem to provide for an expiatory sacrifice.

In doing this he acted in a very excellent and noble way,
inasmuch as he had the resurrection of the dead in view;
for if he were not expecting the fallen to rise again, it would have been useless and foolish to pray for them in death.

But if he did this with a view to the splendid reward
that awaits those who had gone to rest in godliness,
it was a holy and pious thought.

Thus he made atonement for the dead
that they might be freed from this sin.
The Word of God.

2 Job 19:1, 23-27a

A reading from the Book of Job

Job answered Bildad the Shuhite and said:
Oh, would that my words were written down!
Would that they were inscribed in a record:
That with an iron chisel and with lead
they were cut in the rock forever!

But as for me, I know that my Vindicator lives,
and that my Vindicator will at last stand forth upon the dust;

Whom I myself shall see:
my own eyes, not another's, shall behold;
And from my flesh I shall see God;
my inmost being is consumed with longing.
The Word of God.

3 Wisdom 3:1-9

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The souls of the just are in the hand of God
and no torment shall touch them.
They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;
and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.
But they are in peace.

For if before humans, indeed they be punished,
yet is their hope full of immortality;
Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them,
and found them worthy.

As gold in the furnace, God proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings God took them.

In the time of their visitation they shall shine,
and shall dart about as sparks through stubble;
They shall judge nations and rule over peoples,
and our God shall be their Ruler forever.
Those who trust in God shall understand truth,

and the faithful shall abide with God in love:
Because grace and mercy are with God's holy ones,
and God's care is with the elect.
The Word of God.

4 Wisdom 3:1-6, 9

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The souls of the just are in the hand of God
and no torment shall touch them.
They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead;
and their passing away was thought an affliction
and their going forth from us, utter destruction.
But they are in peace.

For if before others, indeed they be punished,
yet is their hope full of immortality;
Chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed,
because God tried them,
and found them worthy.

As gold in the furnace, God proved them,
and as sacrificial offerings God took them.
Those who trust in God shall understand truth,
and the faithful shall abide with God in love:
Because grace and mercy are with God's holy ones,
and God's care is with the elect.
The Word of God.

5 Wisdom 4:7-15

A reading from the Book of Wisdom

The just, though they die early,
shall be at rest.
For the age that is honorable comes not
with the passing of time,
nor can it be measured in terms of years.
Rather, understanding is the hoary crown,
and an unsullied life, the attainment of old age.

Those who pleased God were loved;
those who lived among sinners were transported—Snatched away, lest wickedness pervert their minds
or deceit beguile their souls;
For the witchery of paltry things obscures what is right and the whirl of desire transforms the innocent mind.

Having become perfect in a short while,
the just ones reached the fullness of a long career;
for they were pleasing to God,
therefore God sped them out of the midst of wickedness.
But the people saw and did not understand,
nor did they take this into account.

The Word of God.

Readings for Funerals and Masses for the Dead

6 Isaiah 25:6a, 7-9

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

On this mountain the God of hosts
will provide for all peoples.
On this mountain God will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
The web that is woven over all nations;
God will destroy death forever.
The Most High will wipe away
the tears from all faces,
and remove the reproach of the people
from the whole earth; for God has spoken.
On that day it will be said:
“Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the Most High for whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that God has saved us!”
The Word of God.

7 Lamentations 3:17-26

A reading from the Book of Lamentations

My soul is deprived of peace,
I have forgotten what happiness is;
I tell myself my future is lost,
all that I hoped for from the Most High.
The thought of my homeless poverty
is wormwood and gall;
Remembering it over and over
leaves my soul downcast within me.
But I will call this to mind,
as my reason to have hope:
The favors of the Most High are not exhausted,
God’s mercies are not spent;
They are renewed each morning,
so great is God’s faithfulness.
My portion is the Most High, says my soul;
therefore will I hope in God.
Good is the Most High to one who waits,
to the soul that seeks God;
It is good to hope in silence
for the saving help of the Holy One.
The Word of God.

8 Daniel 12:1-3

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Daniel

In those days, I, Daniel, mourned
and heard this word of the Most High:
At that time there shall arise
Michael, the great prince,
guardian of your people;
It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress
since nations began until that time.
At that time your people shall escape,
everyone who is found written in the book.
Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth

shall awake;
Some shall live forever,
others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.
But the wise shall shine brightly
like the splendor of the firmament,
And those who lead the many to justice
shall be like the stars forever.
The Word of God.

9 Acts 10:34-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter proceeded to speak, saying:
“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.
Rather, in every nation whoever fears God and acts
uprightly is acceptable to God.
You know the word that God sent to the children of Israel
which proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all, and you know what has happened all over Judea,
beginning in Galilee after the baptism
that John preached,
how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth
with the Holy Spirit and power.
He went about doing good
and healing those oppressed by the Devil,
for God was with him.
We are witnesses of all that he did
both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.
They put him to death by hanging him on a tree.
This man God raised on the third day
and granted that he be visible,
not to all the people, but to us,
the witnesses chosen by God in advance,
who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
Jesus commissioned us to preach to the people
and testify that he is the one appointed by God
as judge of the living and the dead.
To him all the prophets bear witness,
that everyone who believes in him
will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”
The Word of God.

10 Acts 10:34-36, 42-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter proceeded to speak, saying:
“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.
Rather, in every nation whoever fears God and acts
uprightly is acceptable to God.
You know the word that God sent to the children of Israel
which proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ,
who is Lord of all.
Jesus commissioned us to preach to the people
and testify that he is the one appointed by God
as judge of the living and the dead.
To him all the prophets bear witness,
that everyone who believes in him
will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”
The Word of God.

11 Revelation 14:13

A reading from the Book of Revelation

I, John, heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this:
Blessed are the dead who die in Christ from now on."
"Yes," said the Spirit,
"let them find rest from their labors,
for their works accompany them."
The Word of God.

12 Revelation 20:11-21:1

A reading from the Book of Revelation

I, John, saw a large white throne and the one who was sitting on it.
The earth and the sky fled from his presence
and there was no place for them.
I saw the dead, the great and lowly,
standing before the throne,
and scrolls were opened.
Then another scroll was opened, the book of life.
The dead were judged according to their deeds,
by what was written in the scrolls.
The sea gave up its dead;
then Death and Hades gave up their dead.
All the dead were judged according to their deeds.
Then Death and Hades were thrown into the pool of fire.
(This pool of fire is the second death.)
Anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the pool of fire.

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.
The Word of God.

13 Revelation 21:1-5a, 6b-7

A reading from the Book of Revelation

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth.
The former heaven and the former earth had passed away,
and the sea was no more.
I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem,
coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,
"Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race.
God will dwell with them and they will be God's people
and God will always be with them as their God.
The Most High will wipe every tear from their eyes,
and there shall be no more death or mourning,
wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away."

The One who sat on the throne said,
"Behold, I make all things new."
I am the Alpha and the Omega,
the beginning and the end.
To the thirsty I will give a gift
from the spring of life-giving water.
The victors will inherit these gifts,
and I shall be their God,
and they will be my children."
The Word of God.

14 Romans 5:5-11

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
Hope does not disappoint,
because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit
who has been given to us.
For Christ, while we were still helpless,
died at the appointed time for the ungodly.
Indeed, only with difficulty
does one die for a just person,
though perhaps for a good person
one might even find courage to die.
But God proves great love for us
in that while we were still sinners Christ died for us.
How much more then,
since we are now justified by Christ's Blood,
will we be saved through him from the wrath.
Indeed, if, while we were enemies,
we were reconciled to God
through the death of the Son,
how much more, once reconciled,
will we be saved by his life.
Not only that,
but we also boast of God through Jesus Christ,
through whom we have now received reconciliation.
The Word of God.

15 Romans 5:17-21

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
If, by the transgression of the one,
death came to reign through that one,
how much more will those who receive the abundance of grace
and of the gift of justification
come to reign through the one Jesus Christ.
In conclusion, just as through one transgression condemnation came upon all,
so, through one righteous act,
acquittal and life came to all.
For just as through the disobedience of the one
the many were made sinners,
so through the obedience of the one
the many will be made righteous.
The law entered in
so that transgression might increase
but, where sin increased,
grace overflowed all the more, so that,
as sin reigned in death,
grace might also reign
through justification for eternal life
through Jesus Christ our savior.
The Word of God.

16 Romans 6:3-9

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus
were baptized into his death?
We were indeed buried with him
through baptism into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of God,
we too might live in newness of life.
For if we have grown into union with him
through a death like his,
we shall also be united with him in the resurrection.
We know that our old self was crucified with Christ,
so that our sinful body might be done away with,
that we might no longer be in slavery to sin.
If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.
We know that Christ, raised from the dead,
dies no more; death no longer has power over him.
The Word of God.

17 Romans 6:3-4, 8-9

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus
were baptized into his death?
We were indeed buried with him
through baptism into death,
so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead
by the glory of God,
we too might live in newness of life.
If, then, we have died with Christ,
we believe that we shall also live with him.
We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no
more; death no longer has power over him.
The Word of God.

18 Romans 8:14-23

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans

Brothers and sisters:
Those who are led by the Spirit of God
are children of God.
For you did not receive a spirit of slavery
to fall back into fear,
but you received a spirit of adoption,
through which we cry, Abba, "Father!"
The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit
that we are children of God,
and if children, then heirs,

Readings for Funerals and Masses for the Dead

heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ,
if only we suffer with Christ
so that we may also be glorified with him.
I consider that the sufferings of this present time
are as nothing
compared with the glory to be revealed for us.
For creation awaits with eager expectation
the revelation of the children of God;
for creation was made subject to futility,
not of its own accord
but because of the one who subjected it,
in hope that creation itself
would be set free from slavery to corruption and share in the glorious freedom of the children of God.
We know that all creation
is groaning in labor pains even until now;
and not only that, but we ourselves,
who have the first fruits of the Spirit,
we also groan within ourselves
as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies
The Word of God.

19 Romans 8:31b-35, 37-39

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the
Romans
Brothers and sisters:
If God is for us, who can be against us?
God did not spare his own Son
but handed him over for us all,
will God not also give us everything else
along with Christ?
Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones?
It is God who acquits us.
Who will condemn?
It is Christ Jesus who died, rather, was raised,
who also is at the right hand of God,
who indeed intercedes for us.
What will separate us from the love of Christ?
Will anguish, or distress or persecution, or famine,
or nakedness, or peril, or the sword?
No, in all these things, we conquer overwhelmingly through Christ who loved us.
For I am convinced that neither death, nor life,
nor angels, nor principalities,
nor present things, nor future things,
nor powers, nor height, nor depth,
nor any other creature will be able to separate us
from the love of God in Christ Jesus our savior.
The Word of God.

20 Romans 14:7-9, 10c-12

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the
Romans
Brothers and sisters:
No one lives for oneself,
and no one dies for oneself.
For if we live, we live for Christ,
and if we die, we die for Christ;
so then, whether we live or die, we are Christ's.
For this is why Christ died and came to life,
that he might be head of both the dead and the living.
Why then do you judge your brother or sister?
Or you, why do you look down on another?
For we shall all stand
before the judgment seat of God;
for it is written:
*As I live, says our God, every knee
shall bend before me,
and every tongue shall give me praise.*
So then each of us
shall give an accounting of ourselves to God.
The Word of God.

21 1 Corinthians 15:20-28

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians
Brothers and sisters:
Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
For since death came through a human being,
the resurrection of the dead
came also through a human being.
For just as in Adam all die,
so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,
but each one in proper order;
Christ the first fruits;
then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ;
then comes the end,
when Christ hands over the Reign to God.
For Christ must reign until he has put all his enemies
under his feet.
The last enemy to be destroyed is death,
for "he subjected everything under his feet."
But when it says that 'everything' has been subjected,
it is clear that it excludes the one who subjected everything to him.
When everything is subjected to Christ,
then the Son will also be subjected to the one who subjected everything to him,
so that God may be all in all.
The Word of God.

Readings for Funerals and Masses for the Dead

22 1 Corinthians 15:20-23

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

Christ has been raised from the dead,
the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
For since death came through a human being,
the resurrection of the dead
came also through a human being.
For just as in Adam all die,
so too in Christ shall all be brought to life,
but each one in proper order;
Christ the first fruits;
then, at his coming, those who belong to Christ.
The Word of God.

23 1 Corinthians 15:51-57

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

Behold, I tell you a mystery.
We shall not all fall asleep,
but we will all be changed,
in an instant, in the blink of an eye,
at the last trumpet.
For the trumpet will sound,
the dead will be raised incorruptible,
and we shall be changed.
For that which is corruptible
must clothe itself with incorruptibility,
and that which is mortal
must clothe itself with immortality.
And when this which is corruptible
clothes itself with incorruptibility
and this which is mortal
clothes itself with immortality,
then the word that is written shall come about:
*Death is swallowed up in victory.
Where, O death, is your victory?
Where, O death, is your sting?*
The sting of death is sin,
and the power of sin is the law.
But thanks be to God who gives us the victory
through our savior Jesus Christ.
The Word of God.

24 2 Corinthians 4:14-5:1

A reading from the Second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

We know that the One who raised Christ Jesus
will raise us also with Jesus
and place us with you in his presence.
Everything indeed is for you,
so that the grace bestowed in abundance
on more and more people
may cause the thanksgiving to overflow
for the glory of God.
Therefore, we are not discouraged;
rather, although our outer self is wasting away,
our inner self is being renewed day by day.
For this momentary light affliction
is producing for us an eternal weight of glory
beyond all comparison,
as we look not to what is seen but to what is unseen;
for what is seen is transitory,
but what is unseen is eternal.
For we know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent,
should be destroyed,
we have a building from God,
a dwelling not made with hands,
eternal in heaven.
The Word of God.

25 Corinthians 5:1, 6-10

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters:

We know that if our earthly dwelling, a tent,
should be destroyed,
we have a building from God,
a dwelling not made with hands,
eternal in heaven.
We are always courageous,
although we know
that while we are at home in the body
we are away from Christ Jesus,
for we walk by faith, not by sight.
Yet we are courageous,
and we would rather leave the body
and go home to Christ.
Therefore, we aspire to please him,
whether we are at home or away.
For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ,
so that each may receive recompense,
according to what we did in the body,
whether good or evil.
The Word of God.

26 Philippians 3:20-21

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians

Brothers and sisters:

Our citizenship is in heaven,
and from it we also await a savior,
Jesus Christ.

He will change our lowly body
to conform to his glorified Body
by the power that enables him also
to bring all things into subjection to himself.
The Word of God.

27 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Thessalonians

We do not want you to be unaware,
brothers and sisters,
about those who have fallen asleep,
so that you may not grieve like the rest,
who have no hope.
For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.
Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of Christ,
that we who are alive,
who are left until Christ's coming,
will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep.
For the Christ himself, with a word of command,
with the voice of an archangel
and with the trumpet of God,
will come down from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.
Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up together with them in the clouds
to meet Christ in the air.
Thus we shall always be with Christ Jesus.
Therefore, console one another with these words.
The Word of God.

28 2 Timothy 2:8-13

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to Timothy

Beloved:

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead,
a descendant of David:
such is my Gospel, for which I am suffering,
even to the point of chains, like a criminal.
But the word of God is not chained.
Therefore, I bear with everything
for the sake of those who are chosen,
so that they too may obtain the salvation

that is in Christ Jesus,
together with eternal glory.
This saying is trustworthy:

*If we have died with Christ
we shall also live with him;
if we persevere
we shall also reign with him.
But if we deny him
he will deny us.
If we are unfaithful
Christ remains faithful,
for he cannot deny himself.*

The Word of God.

29 1 John 3:1-2

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

Beloved:

See what love God has bestowed on us
that we may be called the children of God.
Yet so we are.
The reason the world does not know us
is that it did not know God.
Beloved, we are God's children now;
what we shall be has not yet been revealed.
We do know that when it is revealed
we shall be like God,
for we shall see God as he is.
The Word of God.

30 1 John 3:14-16

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

Beloved:

We know that we have passed from death to life
because we love all as brothers and sisters.
Whoever does not love remains in death.
Everyone who hates his brother or sister
is a murderer,
and you now that no murderer
has eternal life remaining in him.
The way we came to know love
was that Jesus laid down his life for us;
so we ought to lay down our lives
for our brothers and sisters.
The Word of God.

31 Matthew 5:1-12a

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

When Jesus saw the crowds,
he went up the mountain,
and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.
He began to teach them, saying:
“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the reign of God.
Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst
for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they
who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the reign of God.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you
and utter every kind of evil against you falsely
because of me.
Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.”
The gospel of the Lord.

32 Matthew 11:25-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

At that time Jesus answered:
“I give praise to you, Father,
ruler of heaven and earth,
for although you have hidden these things
from the wise and the learned
you have revealed them to the childlike.
Yes, Father, such has been your gracious will.
All things have been handed over to me
by my Father.
No one knows the Son except the Father,
and no one knows the Father except the Son
and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal him.” “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you and learn from me,
for I am meek and humble of heart;
and you will find rest for yourselves.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”
The gospel of the Lord.

33 Matthew 11:25-30

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
“The Kingdom of heaven will be like ten bridesmaids
who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
Five of them were foolish and five were wise.
The foolish ones, when taking their lamps,
brought no oil with them,
but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps.
Since the bridegroom was long delayed,
they all became drowsy and fell asleep.
At midnight, there was a cry,
'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!'
Then all those women got up and trimmed their lamps.
The foolish ones said to the wise,
'Give us some of your oil,
for our lamps are going out.'
But the wise ones replied,
'No, for there may not be enough for us and you.
Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.'
While they went off to buy it,
the bridegroom came
and those who were ready
went into the wedding feast with him.
Then the door was locked.
Afterwards the other bridesmaids came and said,
Please, please, open the door for us!
But the bridegroom said in reply,
'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.'
Therefore, stay awake,
for you know neither the day nor the hour.
The gospel of the Lord.

34 Matthew 25:31-46

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples:
“When the Chosen One comes in glory
with all the angels,
and sits upon a glorious throne,
all the nations will be assembled before him.
He will separate them one from another,
as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats
--the sheep on the right,
and the goats on the left.
Then the Chosen One will say to those on the right,
'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.
Inherit the kingdom prepared for you
from the foundation of the world.
For I was hungry and you gave me food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
a stranger and you welcomed me,

naked and you clothed me,
ill and you cared for me,
in prison and you visited me.’
Then the righteous will answer and say,
‘O Holy One, when did we see you hungry
and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink?
When did we see you a stranger and welcome you,
or naked and clothe you?
When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?’
And he will say to them in reply,
‘Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least of mine, you did for me.’
Then the Chosen One will say to those on the left, ‘Depart from me, you accursed,
into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil
and his angels.
For I was hungry and you gave me no food,
I was thirsty and you gave me no drink,
a stranger and you gave me no welcome,
naked and you gave me no clothing,
ill and in prison, and you did not care for me.’
Then they will answer and say,
‘O Holy One, when did we see you hungry or thirsty
or a stranger or naked or ill or in prison,
and not minister to your needs?’
The Holy One will answer them: ‘Amen I say to you,
what you did not do for one of these least ones,
you did not do for me.’
And these will go off to eternal punishment,
but the righteous to eternal life.
The gospel of the Lord.

35 Mark 15:33-39, 16:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
At noon darkness came over the whole land
until three in the afternoon.
And at three o'clock Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lema sabachthani?”
which is translated,
“My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”
Some of the bystanders who heard it said,
“Look, he is calling Elijah.”
One of them ran, soaked a sponge with wine,
put it on a reed,
and gave it to him to drink, saying,
“Wait, let us see if Elijah comes to take him down.”
Jesus gave a loud cry and breathed his last.
The veil of the sanctuary was torn in two
from top to bottom.
When the centurion who stood facing him
saw how he breathed his last he said, “Truly this man was the Son of God!”
When the sabbath was over,
Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James,
and Salome
bought spices so that they might go and anoint him.
Very early when the sun had risen,

on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb.
They were saying to one another,
“Who will roll back the stone for us
from the entrance to the tomb?”
When they looked up,
they saw that the stone had been rolled back;
it was very large.
On entering the tomb they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe,
and they were utterly amazed.
He said to them, “Do not be amazed!
You seek Jesus of Nazareth, the crucified.
He has been raised; he is not here.
Behold the place where they laid him.”
The gospel of the Lord.

37 Luke 7:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
Jesus journeyed to a city called Nain,
and his disciples and a large crowd accompanied him.
As he drew near to the gate of the city,
a man who had died was being carried out,
the only son of his mother, and she was a widow.
A large crowd from the city was with her.
When the Lord saw her,
he was moved with pity for her and said to her,
“Do not weep.” He stepped forward and touched the coffin; at this the bearers halted,
and he said, “Young man, I tell you, arise!”
The dead man sat up and began to speak,
and Jesus gave him to his mother.
Fear seized them all, and they glorified God,
exclaiming, “A great prophet has arisen in our midst,” and

This report about him spread through the whole of Judea and in all the surrounding region.
The gospel of the Lord.

38 Luke 12:35-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
Jesus said to his disciples:
“Gird your loins and light your lamps
and be like servants
who await their master's return from a wedding,
ready to open immediately
when the master comes and knocks.
Blessed are those servants
whom the master finds vigilant on arrival.
Amen, I say to you, he will gird himself,
have them recline at table,
and proceed to wait on them.
And should he come in the second or third watch
and find them prepared in this way,
blessed are those servants.
Be sure of this:
if the master of the house had known
the hour when the thief was coming,
he would not have let his house be broken into.
You also must be prepared,
for at an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come.”
The gospel of the Lord.

39 Luke 23:33, 39-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
When the soldiers came to the place called the Skull,
they crucified Jesus and the criminals there,
one on his right, the other on his left.
Now one of the criminals hanging there
reviled Jesus, saying, “Are you not the Christ?
Save yourself and us.”
The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply,
“Have you no fear of God,
for you are subject to the same condemnation?
And indeed, we have been condemned justly,
for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes,
but this man has done nothing criminal.”
Then he said,
“Jesus, remember me
when you come into your kingdom.”
He replied to him,
“Amen, I say to you,
today you will be with me in Paradise.”
The gospel of the Lord.

40 Luke 23:44-46, 50, 52-53; 24:1-6a

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
It was now about noon and darkness
came over the whole land
until three in the afternoon
because of an eclipse of the sun.
Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle.
Jesus cried out in a loud voice,
“My God, into your hands I commend my spirit”;
and when he had said this he breathed his last.
Now there was a virtuous and righteous man named Joseph who,
though he was a member of the council,
went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.
After he had taken the body down,
he wrapped it in a linen cloth
and laid him in a rock-hewn tomb
in which no one had yet been buried.
But at daybreak on the first day of the week
the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb.
They found the stone rolled away from the tomb;
but when they entered,
they did not find the body of Jesus.
While they were puzzling over this, behold,
two men in dazzling garments appeared to them.
They were terrified
and bowed their faces to the ground.
They said to them,
“Why do you seek the living one among the dead?
He is not here, but he has been raised.

42 Luke 24:13-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
That very day, the first day of the week,
two of the disciples of Jesus were going to a village called Emmaus,
seven miles from Jerusalem,
and they were conversing
about all the things that had occurred.
And it happened that while they were conversing and debating,
Jesus himself drew near and walked with them,
but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him.
He asked them,
“What are you discussing as you walk along?”
They stopped, looking downcast.
One of them, named Cleopas, said to him in reply,
“Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know of the things that have taken place there in these days?”
And he replied to them, “What sort of things?”
They said to him,
“The things that happened to Jesus the Nazarene,
who was a prophet mighty in deed and word
before God and all the people, how our chief priests and rulers both handed him
over to a sentence of death and crucified him.
But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel; and besides all this,
it is now the third days since this took place.
Some women from our group, however,
have astounded us:
they were at the tomb early in the morning
and did not find his body;
they came back and reported that they had seen a vision of angels
who announced he was alive.
Then some of those with us went to the tomb
and found things just as the women had described,
but him they did not see.”
And he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are!
How slow of heart to believe all the prophets spoke!
Was it not necessary that the Christ
should suffer all these things
and enter into his glory?”
Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets Jesus interpreted to them what referred to him
in all the Scriptures.
As they approached the village
to which they were going,
he gave the impression that he was going on farther.
But they urged him, “Stay with us,
for it is nearly evening and the day is almost over.”
So he went in to stay with them.
And it happened that, while he was with them at
table, he took bread, said the blessing,
broke it, and gave it to them.
With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him,

but he vanished from their sight.
Then they said to each other,
“Were not our hearts burning within us
while he spoke to us on the way
and opened the Scriptures to us?”
So they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem
where they found gathered together
the Eleven and those with them, who were saying,
“The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!”
Then the two recounted
what had taken place on the way
and how he was made known to them
in the breaking of the bread.
The gospel of the Lord.

44 John 5:24-29

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
Jesus answered the Jews and said to them:
“Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever hears my word
and believes in the one who sent me
has eternal life and will not come to condemnation,
but has passed from death to life.
Amen, amen, I say to you, the hour is coming and is now here when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live.
For just as God has life in himself,
so also this life was given to the Son
the possession of life in himself.
And God gave him power to exercise judgment,
because he is the Chosen One.
Do not be amazed at this,
because the hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs will hear my voice and will come out,
those who have done good deeds
to the resurrection of life,
but those who have done wicked deeds
to the resurrection of condemnation.
The gospel of the Lord.

45 John 6:37-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
Jesus said to the crowds:
“Everything that God gives me will come to me, and I will not reject anyone who comes to me, because I came down from heaven not to do my own
will but the will of the one who sent me.
And this is the will of the one who sent me,
that I should not lose anything of what was given me,
but that I should raise it on the last day.
For this is the will of my God,
that all who see the Son and believe in him
may have eternal life,
and I shall raise them on the last day.”
The gospel of the Lord.

46 John 6:51-59

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
Jesus said to the crowds:
“I am the living bread that came down from heaven;
whoever eats this bread will live forever;
and the bread that I will give is my Flesh
for the life of the world.”
The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying,
“How can this man give us his flesh to eat?”
Jesus said to them,
“Amen, amen, I say to you,
unless you eat the flesh of the Chosen One and drink
his Blood, you do not have life within you.
All who eat my flesh and drink my blood
have eternal life,

and I will raise them on the last day.
For my flesh is true food,
and my blood is true drink.
All who eat my flesh and drink my blood
remains in me and I in them.
Just as the living God sent me
and I have life because of God,
so also the those who feed on me
will have life because of me.
This is the bread that came down from heaven.
Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died,
whoever eats this bread will live forever.”
The gospel of the Lord.

47 John 11:17-27

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
When Jesus arrived in Bethany, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days.
Now Bethany was near Jerusalem,
only about two miles away.
And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary
to comfort them about their brother.
When Martha heard that Jesus was coming,
she went to meet him;
but Mary sat at home.
Martha said to Jesus, “Savior, if you had been here,
my brother would not have died.
But even now I know that whatever you ask of God,
God will give you.”
Jesus said to her,
“Your brother will rise.”
Martha said to him,
“I know he will rise,
in the resurrection on the last day.”
Jesus told her,
“I am the resurrection and the life;
all who believe in me, even if they die, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”
She said to him,
“Yes, I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God,
the one who is coming into the world.”
The gospel of the Lord.

49 John 11:32-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him,
she fell at his feet and said to him, “Lord, if you had been here,
my brother would not have died.”
When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping,
he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said,
“Where have you laid him?”
They said to him, “Sir, come and see.”
And Jesus wept.
So the Jews said, “See how he loved him.”
But some of them said,
“Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something
so that this man would not have died?”
So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb.
It was a cave, and a stone lay across it.
Jesus said, “Take away the stone.”
Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, “Lord, by now there will be a stench;
he has been dead for four days.”
Jesus said to her,
“Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?”
So they took away the stone.
And Jesus raised his eyes and said,
“Father, I thank you for hearing me.
I know that you always hear me;
but because of the crowd here I have said this,
that they may believe that you sent me.”
And when he had said this, he cried out in a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”
The dead man came out,
tied hand and foot with burial bands,
and his face was wrapped in a cloth.
So Jesus said to them,
“Untie him and let him go.”
Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.
The gospel of the Lord.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John
Jesus said to his disciples:
“The hour has come for the Chosen One to be glorified.
Amen, amen, I say to you,
unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies,
it remains just a grain of wheat;
but if it dies, it produces much fruit.
All who love their life will lose it,
and all who hates their life in this world
will preserve it for eternal life.
Whoever serves me must follow me,
and where I am, there also will my servant be.
My God will honor whoever serves me.
“I am troubled now. Yet what should I say?
'Father, save me from this hour?'
But it was for this purpose that I came to this hour.
Father, glorify your name.”
Then a voice came from heaven,
“I have glorified it and I will glorify it again.”
The gospel of the Lord.

52 John 14:1-6

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

In God’s house there are many dwelling places.

If there were not,

would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come back again and take you to myself,

so that where I am you also may be.

Where I am going you know the way.”

Thomas said to him, “Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him,

“I am the way and the truth and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.”

The gospel of the Lord.

53 John 17:24-26

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

“Father, those whom you gave me

are your gift to me.

I wish that where I am they also may be with me,

that they may see the glory that you gave me,

because you loved me

before the foundation of the world.

Righteous God, the world also does not know you,

but I know you, and they know that you sent me.

I made known to them your name

and I will make it known,

that the love with which you loved me

may be in them and I in them.”

The gospel of the Lord.
